

DR. LAYNE DAMERON, D.P.M.
3113 E. Dublin
Gilbert, AZ 85295
Cell (620) 255-9896

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME: Dr. Layne Dameron, DPM

FAMILY: Married, 4 daughters, 1 son

INTERESTS: Include outdoor activities, tennis, languages (Spanish, Portuguese, Italian) and martial arts

COLLEGE:

UNDERGRADUATE: Brigham Young University (BS Biology)
135 – ASB
Provo, Utah 84602
Attended: April, 1997 to June, 1999

MEDICAL SCHOOL: Dr. William Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine
3333 Green Bay Road
North Chicago, IL 60064-3095
Attended: August, 1999 to June, 2003
Doctorate of Podiatric Medicine

RESIDENCY: Michael Reese Hospital
2929 South Ellis Drive
Chicago, IL 60610
Director: Dr. Michael Fox, DPM
Type: Podiatric Medicine and Surgery (PSR 24)
Attended: July 1, 2003 to June 25, 2005
Training included general podiatric office practice including diagnosis and treatment of common podiatric conditions such as heel pain, arthritis, foot deformities such as bunions, hammertoes, as well as fracture care, in office treatments such as injections, removal of nails, wound care, and surgical treatment of foot

LICENSE: Arizona (expired), Utah (expired), Nevada

BOARD STATUS: Board Certified Primary Podiatric Medicine – ABMSP
Board Certified Podiatric Surgery – ABMSP
Certified Physician Wound Specialist – APWCA

WORK EXPERIENCE: Spanish Medical Translator:
Scholl College Uninsured Clinic
August 1, 1999 to September 15, 2001

Part time, 4-6 hours a week
Responsibilities: Spanish medical translation for doctors and students, explaining and obtaining consents for medical procedures performed in the office.

Private Practice:
Owner, High Plains Foot Specialist, PA
2200 Summerlon Circle Suite B
Dodge City, KS 67801

June 29, 2005 to December 31, 2012
Medical Responsibilities: Treatment of podiatric problems such as ingrown toenails, nerve pain, heel pain, hammertoes, bunion deformities, ankle pain. Surgical treatment of foot fracture care, corrective foot surgeries such as bunions, hammertoes, endoscopic release of the plantar fascia, ankle arthroscopy, removal of masses and tumors of the foot/ankle, removal of painful nerves, joint release of the foot, arthrodesis of the foot joints, total joint replacements, casting for foot fractures, foot and ankle injections, medical management of conditions such as gout, arthritis and post-op pain management, biopsies of suspicious lesions of the foot, in-patient management of foot fractures, trauma, foot infections, incision and drainage of foot infections, complex management of diabetic ulcerations including antibiotics, Wound VAC, rotational flaps, treatment of gangrene wet and dry, biomechanical exams and treatment of common sports medicine injuries such as fasciitis, Achilles tendonitis, capsulitis, including casting for custom orthotics and fitting for shoes. Additionally, interpretation of X-ray, ultrasound, MRI, CT, ABI, Doppler exams, wound cultures with appropriate antibiotic selection. Fulfill hospital responsibilities to maintain staff privileges, reporting infections, as well as duties in the Surgery Department and CME committee.

Senior Medical Director Responsibilities: Analysis and acquisition of medical practice, securing funding for practice, initiating medical/business bank accounts, reconciliation of business accounts, monthly payroll, interview new candidates, hire and terminate employees, periodic performance evaluation, reviewing advertising and affiliated medial contracts, supervise acquisition of medial inventory, maintaining Medicare compliance records, responsible for new technology implementation such as EMR and digital imaging, promotion of medical practice to public, attending seminars on practice management, working closely with accountant regarding state and federal laws, responsible for periodic office meetings, traveling to neighboring cities for business promotion, meeting doctors and hospital staff and administration on behalf of the business.

Multi-Specialty Group:

Centura Health & Healogics Wound Care Center

January 1, 2013 to July 30, 2017

Full time, 40-60 hours a week

Please see above for medical responsibilities with additional training in wound care at the Garden City Wound Care Center, a regional wound care center, collaborating with a dedicated multi-specialty wound care team, additional training in hyperbaric medicine, received Certified Physician Wound Specialist.

Private Practice:

Southwest Foot & Ankle

676 S Bluff Street

St. George, UT 84770

435-628-5690 office

August 15, 2017 to December 2017

Foot and Ankle Clinics of Arizona

21321 E Ocotillo Road Suite 103

Queen Creek, AZ 85142-5993

480- 917-2300 office

December 2018 to January 2020

Impression Foot and Ankle
5656 South Power Road Suite 124
Gilbert, AZ 85295-8489

January 2020 to March 30, 2020

Furlough then unemployed due directly to Covid-19 pandemic closing our medical clinic
March 30th, 2020 to Sept 8th, 2020

Foot & Ankle Institute of Nevada
2321 Pyramid Way
Sparks, NV 89431
775-331-1919
September 8, 2020 to current
Locum / employee of Dr. Doug Doxey
Purchase of the medical practice and primary owner-
April 19th, 2021.

Staff and Executive Medical Officer:
Ford Center for Foot Surgery
2321 Pyramid Way
Sparks, NV 89431
September 8, 2020 to current